

Adults interested in learning to dance or improving their partnership skills are invited to participate in three FREE social dance lessons from 7-8 on Tuesday evenings (April 11, 18, and 25, 2023). The one-hour lessons providing proven, carefully-sequenced instruction will be taught by Larry Caves, who for 27 years was the director of the ballroom dance program at ASU. The “Walk In... Dance Out” lessons are sponsored by the Leisure World Shall We Round Dance Club as a celebration of International Dance Day (April 29) which encourages dancing by everyone for the health benefits it provides.

The series of three lessons will be held at the Leisure World Rec-2 Ballroom (enter from Southern Avenue between Power and Higley; check in starts at 6:30 pm). Dancers can expect at the conclusion of the three sessions to confidently dance five rhythms in social dance situations.
