

Short Term Study Abroad to Germany, Spring Semester, 2009

Attention CSULB Juniors, Seniors, and Graduate Students interested in doing business in Germany and Europe!

A short-term study abroad class to the Hamburg University of Applied Sciences will be offered Spring Semester, 2009. Travel dates will be June 7–13, 2009.

The Class: We will meet approximately every other week Spring Semester on Thursdays, 5:30pm - 6:45pm in CBA 114. In Germany, the class will begin Sunday, June 7, with a welcome get-together. This will be followed by two days of seminars, visits to German companies, and a farewell dinner at the end of the week. Projects and other assignments have yet to be determined.

The Cost: In addition to registering for this class, you will be responsible for purchasing your own air and ground transportation, food, and incidentals. Lodging will be free! You will stay with a German host. Total cost should be no more than $1700.

First Session: Thursday, January 29, 2009
5:30 pm—6:45pm (CBA 114).

Register for: CBA 494 (Section 2) / GBA 695 (Section 2)

For further information please contact:
Dr. Terry Witkowski, CBA 350
562.985.4766 or witko@csulb.edu

