

September 29 talk and book signing event featuring Ukleja Center Governing Council members

From 4:00 to 6:00 pm on September 29 at Barnes & Noble in Marina Pacifica, 6346 E Pacific Coast Highway, in Long Beach, co-authors Mick Ukleja and Robert Stone will discuss their book The Ethics Challenge followed by a question-and-answer period. Mick is a Founder of the Ukleja Center and both he and Bob are members of our Governing Council.

William S. Kanaga, Retired Chairman of Ernst & Young notes that the book “Delivers a clear and simple message: merely talking about honesty and integrity is not enough. We each have to walk the walk every day.”

Also featured at this event is the publication of Mick’s book with Robert Lorber who is also a Governing Council member. This book helps an individual take control of the future by determining the truth—the truth about who you are, where you are, what you will do, and who your allies are. As management expert Ken Blanchard says, "These four questions will help you deal successfully with every personal and professional challenge you may face."
