Additional Requirements for Certification in Family Life Education

After completion of the recommended coursework, provisional certification may be obtained from the National Council on Family Relations. Two years of practical work experience in the field is needed before the student can apply to the National Council on Family Relations for full certification as a family life educator.

It is recommended that students who are interested in careers in Child Development take FCS 211, 214 and 414 or 415 as their 9 units of approved electives.

Additional Information

1. Use this worksheet as a guide to plan your academic schedule and refer to the 2000-2001 CSULB Catalog for further details.
2. Some 100 and 200 level courses may be taken at a community college. Check the articulation agreements distributed in FCS 299 and meet with an advisor for verification of substitute courses.
3. Some of the courses required in this degree option may also satisfy General Education requirements. Refer to the 2000-2001 CSULB Catalog for G.E. requirements.
4. Students should see a program advisor for more information and for a Program Planner (which is completed one year before graduation).

“C” or Better Requirement:

Child Development and Family Studies students must complete all option courses with a grade of “C” or better.
