

MS Gerontology Application Process

1. Complete the CSULB Graduate or Post-Baccalaureate Application. This is available at any CSU admissions office or you may download it on-line at <http://www.csumentor.edu>.

(NOTE: if you have transcripts from a non-U.S. school, admission to the University should be initiated through the Center for International Education (http://www.csulb.edu/divisions/aa/grad_undergrad/cie/), on campus at (562) 985-5476)

2. In addition to the above, send the following to the Gerontology Program Director:

- Three (3) letters of recommendation
- A current resume
- A personal statement of interest in aging and your career goals in aging.

Deadlines:

Fall Admission July 1

Spring Admission December 1

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LONG BEACH
GERONTOLOGY PROGRAM