

The 6th Annual Intergenerational Reading Day

Hosted by the CSULB Gerontology Club, Sigma Phi Omega

The Gerontology National Honor Society at CSULB has collaborated with the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) and the on-campus child care center to host an Intergenerational Reading Day. Gerontology students, OLLI members and children from the FCS Child Care Center, will get together and share a good story!

Hosted by the CSULB Gerontology Club, Sigma Phi Omega

March 12th, 2010
3:00 pm - 4:00 pm
FCS 108/110

Special thanks to the CSULB Library Children's Collection for providing books for this event.

Contact Information: mclaver@csulb.edu or emilykreindel@hotmail.com