

Clinical Resource Consultant

National consulting firm is looking for nurses with leadership experience who are open to travel. This position is part of a clinical operations team which provides consulting services to Hospitals in some of the following areas: improving overall efficiency and effectiveness of clinical departments, advising clients on policy and procedures of management initiatives, assessing and implementing resource initiatives, patient care program, assessments, recommendations, and implementations. Candidate will have direct client interactions and communications. Previous consulting experienced preferred or health care industry experience at department director level. Bachelor's degree and required (RN). MBA or MHA a plus. Excellent salary and benefits.

For more information, please contact:
Dana Lipin, Prime Time Placements, Inc.
310-378-3808
info@ptplacements.com