

Clinical Resource Consultants

Two positions are open for a national consulting firm based in California. Previous consulting experience preferred or health care industry experience at department director level. This position is part of a team which provides consulting services in the areas of Emergency Department, patient care, and other general operations in some of the following areas: improving overall efficiency and effectiveness of clinical departments – advising clients on policy and procedures of management initiatives – assessing and implementing resource initiatives – patient care program assessments, recommendations, and implementations. Candidate will be given opportunities to present material to clients and at conferences.

Bachelor's degree and RN license required. MBA or MHA a plus. Nurses with leadership experience only. Salary – up to $110,000 + annual bonus. Travel up to 80%.

For more information, please contact: Dana Lipin at Prime Time Placements at (310) 378-3808 or email a current resume to:

info@ptplacements.com