

The Angeles Clinic

AND RESEARCH INSTITUTE

Clinical Nurse Practitioner – Medical Oncology

The Angeles Clinic and Research Institute seeks an experience Clinical Nurse Practitioner. The successful candidate will work in collaboration with the physician to provide diagnosis, treatment, consultation, and follow-up care of medical oncology patients in a clinical research environment.

The Clinical Nurse Practitioner (CNP) will be required to become familiar with research protocols and their requirements for inclusion/exclusion criteria, nursing, drug administration, and accountability, and symptom management.

We are seeking a candidate with a minimum of one year's experience in medical oncology, research background preferred. Candidate must have a current NP license, Master's in Nursing, and current ACLS certification. Candidate must also possess excellent oral and written communication skills, and excellent command of Microsoft suite.

The Angeles Clinic offers competitive compensation and excellent benefits, including: Medical, Dental, Vision, Long Term Disability, Long Term Care, Life Insurance, Paid Parking

Qualified candidates may contact:
Gina Olvera, PHR – Director of Human Resources
golvera@theangelesclinic.org
Phone: (310) 582-7995
Fax: (310) 582-7996