

The Bureau of Government Research and Service

The Bureau of Government Research and Service offers administrative services to public agencies and non-profit organizations in Southern California.

Examples of services offered include:

- * Identification of funding sources
- * Assistance with grant writing
- * Management of grant awards
- * Staffing for special projects
- * Development of curricula for special projects