

The Bureau of Government Research and Service Training

The Bureau of Government Research and Service can provide ready made or custom designed training programs for public organizations and non-profits in Southern California. Check back for schedules of future seminars and workshops.

Examples of past training programs include:

- * Grant Writing
- * Technical Writing
- * Improving Organizational Skills
- * Negotiating for money in the public sector
- * Improving Public Contact Skills
- * Managing Values & Ethics
- * Website Design & Management for Public Agencies.