

THE MARGARET MEAD FILM & VIDEO FESTIVAL MARCH 11-13, 2009

Beginning at 5:30pm
At the Link Theater (UT)
Free Admission

"The Margaret Mead Film & Video Festival is the longest-running, premiere showcase for international anthropological films and documentaries in the United States, encompassing a broad spectrum of work, from indigenous community media to experimental nonfiction. The Festival is distinguished by its outstanding selection of titles, which tackle diverse and challenging subjects, representing a range of issues and perspectives."

For more information, please contact the CSULB Anthropology Department at anthro@csulb.edu.

DEPARTMENT OF ANTHROPOLOGY ETHNOGRAPHIC FILM AWARDS CEREMONY MAY 9, 2009

Beginning at 8:00 pm at the Link Theater (UT)
Free Admission

Come join us for the Inaugural Anthropology Beach film awards ceremony where we will be showcasing CSULB student-produced ethnographic films and presenting awards for the best films. Come see what CSULB students are able to produce within one to two years of training. Prior to the film screening, there will be a departmental fundraiser, including dinner and a silent auction. Those participating in the dinner will receive reserved seating at the film screening and awards ceremony. For more information, please contact

For more information, please contact the CSULB
Anthropology Department at anthro@csulb.edu.