

November 12, 2008

CBA Rm. 229

4-7pm

Free event; light food and refreshments will be served.

Discussant
Professor Raul
Reiss of the Journalism
Department

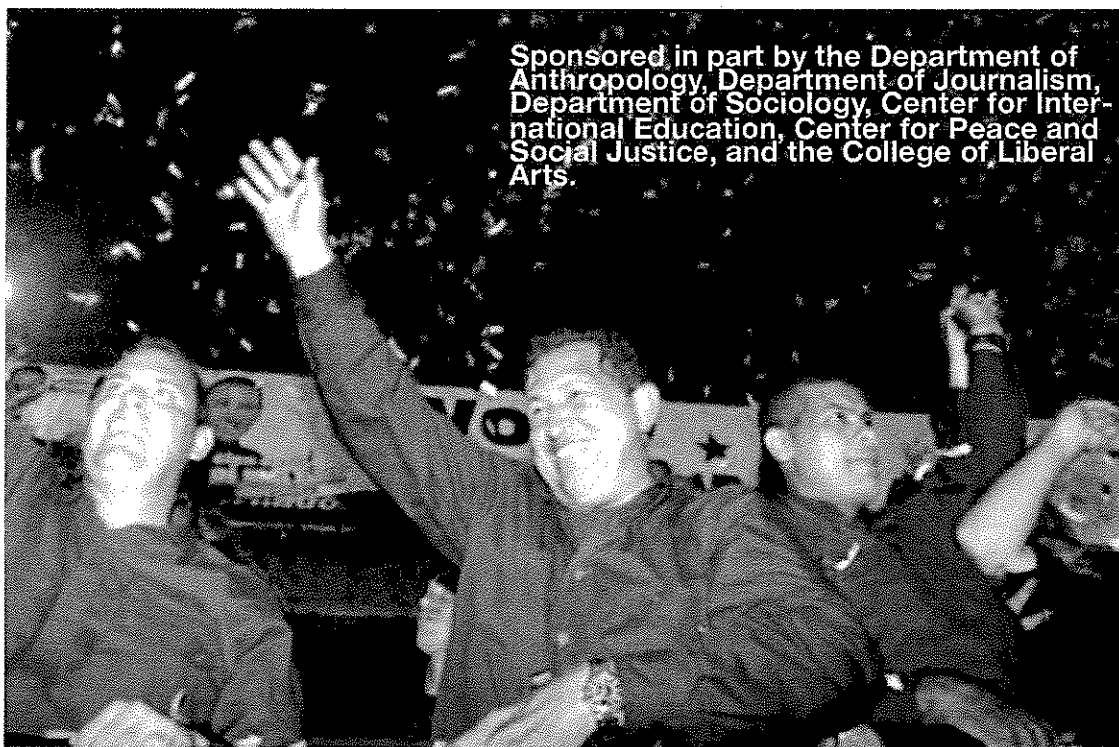

Discussant
Student Patricia
McHugh

Moderator
Professor Ronald Loewe of Anthropology

What's Really Happening in Venezuela? Chavéz, Bush, and the U.S. Media

This comprehensive forum will include student reflections from those who visited Venezuela this summer, showings of segments of documentaries The Revolution will Not be Televised and A Radical Social Analysis by CSULB student Luis Testa, and an open dialogue/debate from our discussants.

Sponsored in part by the Department of Anthropology, Department of Journalism, Department of Sociology, Center for International Education, Center for Peace and Social Justice, and the College of Liberal Arts.

