

7th Annual Geography Awareness Week Photo Contest

Deadline: November 3rd 2009

Prizes are awarded for best overall image and top two photos in each category. Participation is open to all.

Submission:

Step 1: Submit an unmated and unframed color or black and white 8"x10" print of your photos to the Geography department in LA4-106 by Nov. 3. Include on the back of your photo: title, location, and year. Do not include your name on the photo. If you wish your image to be returned at the end of the contest please provide a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Step 2: Submit a hard-copy application with your photo. The application is available at <http://www.geography.wranic.com/photocontest.html> or in LA4-106.

Rules:

Each contestant can submit up to a total of four different original photos not entered previously in a contest. You must select one category for each image and indicate this on the application. Photos must be your own images.

Images must not have been digitally altered in any way other than necessary cropping and resizing.

Winners must provide an electronic copy of the photo to awranic@csulb.edu.

How do I win? A public exhibit of images will be held during Geography Awareness week (Nov. 9th, 10th, 12, and 13th) Winners will be chosen by popular ballot.

Best in Geography in Action Category 2009

The 6 Categories

1. Physical Landscape (emphasis on land, water, air)
2. Flora or Fauna (plants or animals)
3. Urban Landscape (life in the city)
4. Rural Landscape (farm life or more)
5. People/Culture (examples of people and culture are more important than setting)
6. Geography In Action (What geographers do)

You may also mail images with your application to:

Cal State University Long Beach,
Geography Department c/o Angela Wranic,
1250 Bellflower Blvd. Long Beach, CA 90840

Additional questions contact:
awranic@csulb.edu

Do not submit unique prints. The Department of Geography is not responsible for possible damages to or losses of images while they are displayed. The winning images become the property of the department; it reserves the right to reproduce, publicly exhibit and or publish the image without permission from/payment to the photographer. The photographer retains the rights to the image. All model releases are the responsibility of the photographer. Entry to the contest constitutes agreement.