

My name is Helen and I am contacting you from My Retail Heaven (<http://www.myretailheaven.co.uk/>), which is an online shopping site.

The reason that I am contacting you is because we are currently looking for student writers to do guest posts on our online magazine:
<http://www.myretailheaven.co.uk/magazine/>

We believe that this will be good experience for your students to write on a professional platform, and we already have a few Universities in the UK involved in this, so it would be great to have more universities, from across the world, take part.

Thank you for your time.

Kind Regards

Helen
