Intern description:

OneCubicle.com offers you an opportunity to work for an up and coming business social networking site suited for individuals in their first, second or third job. Not only is the site a place to make connections, but it is also a place to possibly meet your next boss, post your resume and search for recent job openings.

Engage the OneCubicle brand with current online communities, track current and upcoming Web 2.0 trends, create unique business presentations, and handle some company correspondence. Travel with us to southern California college campuses for career fairs, speaking engagements, and Guerilla marketing

Help with blogs, social network profiles, newsletters, and viral videos. Copy writing and copy editing experience is a plus.

We desire input for all types of consumer brands. Come up with creative ideas for OneCubicle.com Web site, client press & publicity campaigns, assist with presentations to Fortune 500 companies, ideas for new partners, ideas for new advertisers, and ideas for new marketing campaigns/events, and make us aware of the trends for Gen Y and Gen X.

Requirements:

College student or recent college grad: Business, Marketing, Communications, Broadcasting, Film, Journalism, or Public Relations curriculum preferred.

Some industry work experience preferred.

A working knowledge of Web 2.0 landscape, social networking/media, tags, biz dev, marketing, advertising, television, film, and viral videos.

Knowledge of pop culture, entertainment, and trends across multiple platforms.

Must be able to commit 20 hours a week.

Must have excellent interpersonal skills and be able to interact with all types of personalities.

Please send: Brief cover letter and resume. Looking for people who can commit to the entire fall semester.
