

The Transpacific Yacht Club, the organizer of the 103 Year old Transpacific sailboat race between Long Beach and Honolulu Hawaii, is seeking a local journalism student in long beach to assist with press releases and blogs for the Race. The Transpac race has a great deal of history as boats from all over the world come to Rainbow Harbor in Long Beach to gather before the start. The race is 2500 miles long and has been going on every 2 years since 1906.

The 2009 Transpac Race Starts this July - More details can be found at www.transpacrace.com

Is there a place at the California State Long Beach Department of Journalism department to advertise the position?

It is a temporary job from now to the end of July.

My cell phone number is 949 212 7625.

Thanks,

Tom Pollack
