

CSULB's SPANISH GRADUATE STUDENT ASSOCIATION
will host the
FIRST ANNUAL SPANISH GRADUATE STUDENT SYMPOSIUM:

SEX AND SEXUALITY IN HISPANIC LITERATURE AND FILM

Call for Papers

Graduate students are invited to submit a 1-page abstract (250 words) in English or Spanish on a topic relating to Hispanic Literature or Film to the selection committee for peer-review.

Friday, March 16, 2012.
California State Univ., Long Beach
KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Dr. José Cartagena Calderón
Pomona College

Topics include but are not limited to:

- * Sex vs. gender
- * Queer studies
- * Voyeurism
- * Psychoanalysis
- * Bestiality
- * Sexual metaphors
- * Homosexuality
- * Androgyny
- * Writing the Body
- * Sexual experience
- * Intersections with class and/or race
- * Sex acts
- * Alternate sexualities
- * Erotic indigenous/Sexual indigenism
- * Precolonial/Postcolonial sexuality
- * Sexual rupture
- * Courtship
- * Sex and religion
- * Sex as initiation
- * Freudian and Jungian analysis
- * Sex trade
- * Repression
- * Violence and the body
- * Eroticism

Please send abstracts to sgsa@csulbclasc.org with the subject title "Sex and Sexuality Conference 2012," including name, academic affiliation, title of the paper, and year in the program. SGSA will accept papers from current or past MA/PhD students.

Submission Deadline: 12/15/11

Questions? Contact:
Santiago Aguilar
SGSA Vice President
sgsa@csulbclasc.org