

Spring CALVEIN/Space Grant Scholarships: $1,500

CALVEIN

California Launch Vehicle Education Initiative

- Scholarship:
 - Two $1,500 scholarships for Spring 2005 semester
 - Funds provided by the California Space Grant Consortium (NASA)
- Qualifications:
 - Demonstrated continuous active participation in
 - CALVEIN prototype launch vehicle development
 - Aerospace Systems Integration lab. management
 - Enrolled CSULB junior, senior or graduate student – Min. 2.9 GPA
 - Major in Aerospace, Mechanical, Electrical Engineering or CECS
 - Must be U.S. Citizen or U.S. Resident (federal funds)
- Terms:
 - Acceptance of the scholarship supposes taking/continuing to take a leadership role in a specific CALVEIN project (e.g. engine development, lab management, NLV development)
 - Previous CALVEIN scholarship recipients may apply for the scholarship but may receive only one scholarship per period (Fall/Spring/Summer)
- Applications:
 - Download at <http://www.csulb.edu/rockets/>
 - Submit by March 11 via email along with resume & cover letter (indicating what you have done and would be interested in further expanding) to Dr. Besnard, besnarde@csulb.edu

NLV first stage Flight Development Unit No. 1, a.k.a. P-5 before successful flight and recovery & CALVEIN team (Dec. 2004)

Also: 2 more $2,000 Scholarships in Summer 2005