Single Subject Teaching Credential in Latin (code 156)

This new credential was recommended by the Academic Senate on November 20, 2003, approved by the President on December 2, 2003 and approved by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing on May 6, 2004.

Requirements

The Single Subject Teaching Credential consists of 34 units in Latin and related area courses. Courses taken for the credential will also count towards the units needed for the Classics B.A. <Option in Roman Civilization.

1. Required courses: LAT 301, 401, 402, 410A, B, C.
2. Five courses from the following: LAT 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 490.
3. One of the following: HIST 312I, 314.
4. One of the following: CLSC 421I, 440.

Students are required to keep a portfolio of written work produced in the above classes with instructor comments. Members of the Latin faculty evaluate the portfolio according to established criteria. The credential candidate also takes an exit examination administered by the Latin faculty which will assess pronunciation, speech and conversation, listening and writing, and reading. Credential students also produce a Latin play.

Single Subject Credential students are also required to complete 44 units in the College of Education including Student Teaching. Prospective students should consult the Department's Latin Single Subject Advisor, Dr. Kathryn Chew, early to plan their programs.
