Master of Arts in Education

Option in Dual Language Development (code EDELMA04)

(30-33 units)

The Master of Arts in Education, Option in Dual Language Development focuses on bilingualism in school and societal contexts. The program, through its action research approach, seeks to develop a cadre of teacher-leaders who systematically and purposefully examine and refine their own pedagogy with respect to the instruction of language minority students.

Prerequisites

A valid teaching credential with BCLAD/CLAD emphasis or certification, or by permission of program coordinator. Demonstration of bilingual proficiency, or six (6) college semester units of a language other than English, or verified equivalent.

Admission

In addition to applying to the university for graduate standing, candidates must submit a program-specific application. Program applications are available in the College Graduate Studies Office (ED1-7) and online at <http://www.ced.csulb.edu/teacher-ed/resources/documents/masters.cfm>.
