“CSULB was the only University to place in all divisions,” said USU Assistant Director of Programs Sylvana Cicero.

The competition, held in Anaheim the weekend of Feb. 12, featured dance and cheer squads, and mascots from all over the country.

CSULB entered in five categories: small co-ed show cheer, partner stunt college, group stunt college, division one open dance and mascot.

The Cheer team competed against 11, Dance competed against 13 and Prospector Pete competed against the mascots of four other schools.

These victories come just weeks after the Dance Team took second place in the United Dance Association’s National Competition in Florida.
