Long Beach, CA – More than 300 student clubs and organizations call CSULB home, and that number alone can be daunting for new students trying to figure out where they fit in.

The Associated Students, Inc. makes the choice a little easier by inviting these clubs and organizations to come out and introduce themselves to new and returning students. This year, get involved by visiting Week of Welcome '09.

“This is a perfect opportunity for students – new and returning – to get to know what this campus offers,” said ASI Vice President Omar Gonzalez. “And while you’re learning, you’re also having a lot of fun.”

Week of Welcome kicks off Wednesday, Sept. 9 with the Organization Fair from 11 a.m. -2 p.m. at the Speakers Platform Lawn, which will include many departments and student organizations on campus.

The fun continues Wednesday night with ASI Info Night. Any questions you have regarding ASI will be available from 5-8 p.m. at the University Student Union Southwest Terrace. On Thursday, Sept. 10, the Organization Fair at the Speakers Platform Lawn will continue from 11 a.m.-2 p.m.

It all wraps up Friday with Smorgasport, which will feature free food, games, entertainment and much more. Always one of the most popular events on campus, students can partake in a fun, safe, social evening that includes free bowling, billiards, video games as well as special performances. It will be held at the University Student Union, Parking Lot 3 and the Goldmine Gym from 8 p.m. to midnight.
