CAMP Eligibility Information:

To be eligible to participate in CAMP, either the student or *immediate family member must be a seasonal or migrant farm worker or a dependent of a seasonal or migrant farm worker. "Seasonal farm worker" means a person who was employed in farm work and whose primary employment was in farm work on a temporary or seasonal basis (not a constant year-round activity). "Migrant farm worker" means a person whose employment required travel that prevented him or her from returning home within the same day.

Note: The work could have been done recently or done when you were in grades K-12.

*Immediate Family includes, Parents, Guardians, Grandparents, Uncles, Aunts, etc. but they must have claimed you as a dependent on their taxes or must currently reside/or previously resided in the same household as you.

In addition, you must be enrolled as a full-time student at CSULB and have California residency with U.S. citizenship or legal permanent resident status is also required.
