

November 14, 2008

4:30 pm to 9:00 pm

University Student
Union,
Beach Auditorium
(1st floor near pool tables)

AMERICAN INDIAN LEADERS OF
TODAY AND TOMORROW (AILOTT)
HIGHER EDUCATION CONFERENCE

"The State of Native America: Raps to Remember, Raps to Re-Present"

American Indian Student Council

Reggae, Funk, Rock, Punk and Hip Hop have become active expressive agents for contemporary Native people. Our theme, "The State of Native America: Raps to Remember, Raps to Re-Present", seeks to explore the evolution of Native Music as it continues to expand its dynamic reach into the 21st century.

AILOTT will feature:

- A workshop on admissions and financial aid
- A multi-generational panel discussion by Native composers/performers/producers who cross musical divides fostering new creative and critical Native music that amplifies the current tone of Native America.
- A performance by the Native Hip Hop troupe "One Nation" from South Dakota.

The AILOTT Higher Education Conference is designed to bring together American Indian students in middle school, high school, community colleges, and re-entry programs to provide them with an awareness of culture, career and educational opportunities. We strive to enhance the opportunity for the community and campus to unite and work towards a better future for American Indians as a whole.

California State University,
Long Beach

1250 Bellflower Boulevard, USU-215
Long Beach, CA 90840

To Register or for More Information Contact:

Anna H. Nazarian-Peters (562) 985-8528
anzarian@csulb.edu www.csulb.edu/aiss