Long Beach, CA – Put on some green and grab your CSULB I.D. because the best St. Patty's Day celebration will be at The Beach! The Associated Students, Inc. (ASI) will be doing it Irish style at this year's St. Patty's Day Bash on Thursday, March 16th at The Nugget from 7:30 p.m. to 11 p.m. CSULB students can get into the spirit of things with live music and give-aways all night long.

"It's a great opportunity for students to get together before midterms," said AS Administrator Monique Henley. "I hope they take advantage of it."

This year Science Fiction Theatre, The Aggrolites and The Sweet and Tender Hooligans will take the stage. The Aggrolites, a ska/rock band, will be playing for the second time here on campus. Fans of The Smiths should get in line to see the Los Angeles-based Sweet & Tender Hooligans.

"Sweet and Tender Hooligans are considered to be the ultimate Morrissey/Smiths cover band," said AS Student Government Entertainment Commissioner Irene Montero. "They nearly have a cult following just like Morrissey."

On top of the night's free concert, students who are wearing green and show their student I.D. will be given a free gift. The St. Patty's Day Bash is a yearly event hosted by the Entertainment Commission of Associated Students, Inc.
