

CSULB 2012 President's Ambassadors Program Application

About the Program

The President's Ambassadors are a unique group of student leaders who serve and represent the University in multiple capacities. They actively engage in campus and community events as well as host VIPs and guests at University functions. Showcasing the excellence of California State University, Long Beach, President's Ambassadors are expected to be role models of professionalism, hospitality, character, and Beach pride.

Apply to be a President's Ambassador

The President's Ambassadors Program is looking for enthusiastic, motivated, and poised student leaders to represent the University. If you have experience in leadership, public speaking, and campus/community collaboration, and you are interested in contributing your skills to The Beach, we hope you will apply to the President's Ambassador Program.
