7 GRADUATE TRANSFER UNITS BY EXTENSION

9
10 At the option of the college/school or department offering an advanced degree requiring a total 11 of 30 units, up to six units of approved extension/continuing education or transfer credit may be 12 used on a graduate student's programs. At the option of the college/school or department 13 offering a graduate degree requiring a total of 30 units, this limit may be raised to 9 units of 14 extension/continuing education credit if taken at CSULB. These limits may be increased further 15 for graduate degrees requiring more than 30 units, provided that (1) no graduate degree may be 16 awarded by CSULB unless at least 24 units are taken in residence, and (2) no graduate student 17 program may use either extension/continuing education or transfer credit to satisfy the 18 requirement that at least 60 percent of the total units be taken at the 500 and 600 levels.
19 Extension courses completed at campuses including California State University, Long Beach shall 20 be acceptable within the six-unit transfer limit, provided the work can be properly evaluated and 21 the course is acceptable as graduate work for an equivalent graduate degree on the campus
22 where taught. Extension/continuing education and transfer course material shall be evaluated
23 and approved by CSULB faculty teaching in the topic area in conjunction with the department
24 graduate advisor and college/school dean or director of graduate studies. Final 25 approval/disapproval shall be the responsibility of the Dean of Graduate Studies.
