  - A. Visitor/Collab Partner: Ryan Maganini LGBTQIA2S+ Health Equity Coordinator, Long Beach Health and Human Services Department- R Maganini presents on being a community health liaison for LB Health Dept to be more responsive to the needs of the greater LB community. He is tasked with a community health needs assessment. The hope is to roll out a program early next year to assess the need in the LGBTQIA community. He asks if there are student groups he can communicate with. S Miller tells R Maganini about the governance structure of CSULB and how this committee fits under the governance structure. They explained how this group came about and what the mission of this committee is. The QTFSa website was mentioned and how to navigate to it and the information listed on the website. Rainbow Café has existed since 2014 and is headed by Dr. Lauren Jensen and is every Monday during the semester. Other programs include Gender Universe, which is a drop-in group for students. Color Me Queer is a QT Bipoc group. CED, Queer and Trans future educators group just created according to K Sanderson, is a student group. WGSSSA is a student association in WGSS. WGSS hosts a Queer studies minor. Trans advocacy coalition is also on campus. A resolution on non LGBTQIA/Trans hate was recently completed and will be sent to the Academic Senate for approval and distribution. HRT is now being available in the Health Center by prescription. Gender guidelines with regards to University communications was discussed. Lavender Graduation is an event this committee is involved with.
