

2019 DEPARTMENTAL GRADUATE STUDENT HONORS

Celebrate the 70th Commencement

In recognition of outstanding graduate student achievements

In recognition of outstanding graduate student achievements, departments may honor graduating Master's candidates by special recognition in the annual commencement ceremonies. The number of honors awarded by a department shall be limited to three students or five percent of graduates, whichever is larger. Departmental Graduate Student Honors are usually reserved for post-baccalaureate students not otherwise recognized by university or college awards. These honors are normally conferred for excellence in and contributions to the discipline, including outstanding seminar papers, artistic exhibitions, special achievements in field work, and service in university committees and functions, as well as participation in scholarly and professional organizations resulting from student research. Graduates are eligible for departmental honors if they have completed all master's degree requirements and are receiving a diploma dated December 2018, January 2019, May 2019, or August 2019.
