Dr. Michael J. Dumas

Assistant Professor | UC Berkeley

Dr. Dumas is an Assistant Professor at the University of California, Berkeley in the Graduate School of Education and the African American Studies Department. He earned a Ph.D. in Urban Education with an emphasis in social and educational policy studies from The Graduate Center of the City University of New York. His research sits at the intersection(s) of the cultural politics of Black education, the cultural political economy of urban education, and the futurity of Black childhood(s). He is primarily interested in how schools become sites of Black material and psychic suffering and anti-black violence.
