Child Development majors and minors and Liberal Studies majors can study abroad through a variety of programs in regions throughout the world. Why not study abroad, receive academic credit, and decrease your time to degree? Options include:

- CSU International Programs (CSU IP) are year-long programs. Students apply from all 23 campuses in the CSU system.
- CSULB also offers one semester or year-long programs (CSULB Direct Exchange) at partner universities.
- You pay CSULB tuition, may use Financial Aid (if eligible), and receive CSULB course credit. Scholarships are also available.
- Students are encouraged to meet with their academic advisor to discuss course substitutions early in the study abroad planning process.
