

Test Engineer Intern

The intern in this position will work closely with our hardware design engineering team assisting with hardware and software testing, and product evaluations; create test reports. Other related work may be assigned.

Requirements:

- Currently enrolled as a Sophomore or Junior.
- Pursuing Bachelor's Degree in Electrical or Computer Engineering
- Ability to work on site at least 20 hours a week.

Qualifications:

- Knowledge of hardware design and testing.
- Knowledge of schematics and electronic circuits.
- Effective verbal and written communication skills.
- Strong analytical skills.
- Must be able to successfully manage multiple responsibilities.
- Ability to work collaboratively in a team environment

Why Join Kingston?

- Work with the latest technology and devices.
- Business casual work environment.
- We are a company that believes investing in employees is essential to our success.
- Regarded as "One of the Best Companies to Work for in America" by Fortune Magazine.

<http://www.kingston.com/us/company>

If you are interested in applying, please send your resume to Karen Algee at Karen_algee@kingston.com. You may also contact her if you have any questions.