COURSE
ART 415: On-site Studies in Art Education

PROGRAM
Partner this summer with Project Harmony. Launched in 2010, Project Harmony is a four–week English-language summer camp aiming to create a safe social space for Arab and Jewish children to relate in the most basic way - not as citizens of a political state or members of a religion, but as peers. Experiences in self-expression from the California Visual and Performing Arts Framework while addressing children’s artistic and aesthetic development. Following state standards, students develop aesthetic perception, learn skills for talking about art, and gain understanding in historical and cultural contexts.
