

Celebrate

La Palma's 49 Years

La Palma Days 2004

Saturday, November 13, 2004

10:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Central Park, 7821 Walker Street

Parade & Band Review

Band Review - 9:45 a.m. Parade - 10:00 a.m.

The La Palma Days Parade and Band Review, designated the Official Orange County Veterans Day Parade, will feature over 125 units including 2 dozen junior and senior high school bands, JROTC units, celebrities, dignitaries, local schools, clubs and organizations; all parading proudly down Walker Street from Houston to La Palma Avenue to emphasize La Palma's great community spirit!

Entertainment

La Palma Days will feature 2 stages of diverse family entertainment. The day will feature professional performers in addition to our local talent and schools. Our family stage will provide magical entertainment for younger guests, along with roving entertainment for the entire family.

Food & Vendors

Enjoy a wide variety of tasty cuisine from around the world and support your local nonprofit groups at the same time! Bring your appetites, select your favorite foods, and sit down and relax in our covered picnic area. Also shop and browse through our community and commercial booths, featuring various products, services and games.

Cultural & Historical

La Palma celebrates its diversity and its 49 year history by sharing its many cultures in a special display area.

Arts & Crafts

A special arts & crafts area will feature talented artisans and weekend crafters. A variety of handcrafted items, jewelry and holiday gifts will be available to purchase. A great opportunity to start your holiday shopping!

Activities

A variety of activities for preschool to adult will be featured, including: giant obstacle courses, giant fiberglass slide, rope ladder climb, gyroscope, basketball shoot, small children's rides, bounce houses, pony rides and petting zoo.
