

Fifth Annual Southern California
Philosophy Conference
Saturday, October 21, 2000
California State University, Long Beach

This annual conference was initiated by the Department of Philosophy at the University of California, Irvine, which hosted the first four gatherings. We are honored that the UCI department has given us the opportunity to host the conference this year. It has come to play a vital role in the lives of philosophers in the region, and we hope you will join us for continuation of this tradition.

. . . A varied program with sessions of interest to all philosophers, including faculty, students, philosophers with non-academic careers, as well as philosophers who are unemployed or underemployed.

. . . Sessions on: Ethics, Ancient Philosophy, Philosophy of Science, Student Papers, Online Resources for Teaching Philosophy, Feminist Philosophy, Modern Philosophy, New Faculty, Philosophy of Mind, Aesthetics, Getting Published: What Philosophy Journals are Looking For, Getting a Job: What Academic Departments are Looking for, Philosophy of Law, Teaching Non-Western Philosophy, Philosophy of Religion, Philosophy in the Schools

Conference Web Site:
<http://www.csulb.edu/~philos/SoCal/>

- Complete program schedule
- Registration forms
- Maps
- Parking Information ($1.75/day)

Organizing Committee--California State University, Long Beach

Sara Goering, Assistant Professor of Philosophy (sgoering@csulb.edu)

Larry Nolan, Assistant Professor of Philosophy (lpnolan@csulb.edu)

G.A. Spangler, Professor of Philosophy (spangler@csulb.edu)

Paul C.L. Tang, Professor of Philosophy (pcltang@csulb.edu)

Julie Van Camp, Professor and Chair of Philosophy (jvancamp@csulb.edu)

John Whipple, President, Student Philosophy Association (jmwhip789@hotmail.com)

deadline for pre-registration: 10/14/2000