

MARY WALKER
5582 Crescent, # 6
Cypress, California 90630
Home: (714) 826-2728 Work: (562) 985-2392
mwalker3@csulb.edu

EDUCATION

- M.A., Public Policy & Administration, California State University, Long Beach, 1998.
- Ph.D., History (Modern British), University of Virginia, 1987
- B.A., History, University of Southern California, 1980

WRITING

- "‘Health and Happiness For All’: The Career of ‘Dr.’ W. R. Price, ‘Psychologist’ and ‘Mining Engineer,’” Meeting of the Association for the Study of Esotericism (Davis, California) June 8-11, 2006
- "The Women's Municipal Party," Meeting of the Pacific Coast Conference on British Studies (San Diego, California) March 27-29, 1992.
- "Between Fiction and Madness: The Relationship of Women to the Supernatural in Late Victorian Britain" in That Gentle Strength: Aspects of Female Spirituality University of Virginia Press, 1990.
- "The Impact of the First World War on the Participation of Women in Local Government in England and Wales," Doctoral Dissertation, University of Virginia, 1987

TEACHING

- Instructor, High Point College (Spring 1990)
 - British History Survey (1688-Present)
 - Modern Britain (1832-Present)
- Instructor, University of Colorado, Boulder (Spring 1989)
 - British History Survey (1688-Present)
 - Modern Britain (1832-Present)
- Instructor, University of Virginia (Summer 1986 & Spring 1987)
 - British History Survey (1688-Present)
 - Seminar: Women in Victorian Britain