

Practicing Peace

November 18th 2008

The Center for Peace and Social Justice along with the College of Liberal Arts is hosting a campus & community festival for Peace. An all inclusive event of dialogue, performance, action and celebration dedicated to creating a more peaceful and just world.

Activities include:

A Living, Breathing, Human Peace Symbol
Created with everyone at the festival!

"It takes a Village to Rape a Woman":
Sexual Assault Workshop
Presented by WSSA

"Examining Hate Crimes in our Community"
Presented by The Human Dignity Program of Long Beach and CCEJ

Guest Speakers

Candle Light Procession
honoring all those lost to violence world wide

Potential Participants include:

Peace Studies, ASI, Women's Resource Center, The Multi-Cultural Center, Middle Eastern Studies, WSSA, F.O.R.C.E., Campus Progressives, Cease Animal Torture, Psychology Student Association, Student Philosophy Association, One Imagination, CODEPINK, Human Dignity Program of Long Beach, California Conference for Equality and Justice, and many more!

Place: Upper Quad between the LA and FA buildings

Time: 10am-9pm

For more information please contact:

Alisha Herrick

562-985-5381

aherrick@csulb.edu