9 Maximum Student Load

10 (This policy supersedes Policy Statement 75-10, also entitled Maximum Student Load.)

11 This policy was recommended by the Academic Senate on March 18, 2004, and 12 approved by the President on June 14, 2004.

13
14 I. Maximum Student Load during the Fall and Spring Semesters.

15 An undergraduate student carrying 12 or more units during the fall or spring semester is 16 classified as a full-time student. A graduate or post-baccalaureate student carrying 9 or 17 more units during the fall or spring semester is also classified as a full-time student. An 18 undergraduate student carrying fewer than 12 units or a graduate or post-baccalaureate 19 student carrying fewer than 9 units is classified as a part-time student. These definitions 20 derive from federal financial aid regulations and have no bearing on the definitions used by 21 the State of California to determine a student's liability for the State University Fee. The 22 maximum number of units a student may take during the fall or spring semester is 23 normally 18 for undergraduate, graduate, or post-baccalaureate students.

24 Exceptions to this limit will be made only on the basis of proven academic ability, the 25 feasibility of a student's proposed schedule, and the evidence that it is necessary to enroll 26 for an overload in order to complete the student's chosen academic program in a timely 27 manner. Permission must be obtained from the office of the Division of Academic Affairs 28 prior to registration.

29 II. Maximum Student Load during the Summer Term.

30 The maximum number of units a student may take during the summer term is one unit 31 per week, plus one additional unit. Thus, the maximum number of units is normally 7 for 32 one 6-week session, 10 for two overlapping sessions, and 14 for an entire summer.

33 Exceptions to this limit will be made only on the basis of proven academic ability, the 34 feasibility of a student's proposed schedule, and the evidence that the extra units will 35 enable the student to graduate in that or the immediately subsequent term. Permission
36 must be obtained from the office of the Division of Academic Affairs prior to registration.

37 III. Maximum Student Load during the Winter Session.

38 The maximum number of units a student may take during the winter session is one unit
39 per week, plus one additional unit. Thus, the maximum number of units is normally 4.

40 Exceptions to this limit will be made only on the basis of proven academic ability, the 41 feasibility of a student's proposed schedule, and the evidence that the extra units will 42 enable the student to graduate in that or the immediately subsequent term. Permission
