Streets, Buildings And Public Spaces
Architecture and Film-making
by Tom Lockhart

The 2019 OLLI class, How to Look at Architecture, conducted by Rick Meghiddo, was so successful OLLI asked Rick to give an update this year. Rick’s Architecture and Film-making course will give the students an opportunity to see the latest developments in the intersection of architecture with art, music and the environment. The course medium will be some of Rick’s more than twenty new documentary films, many shown at international film festivals, depicting architectural developments as they relate to the other disciplines.

A special emphasis will be on three elements of our lives: streets, buildings and public spaces. All are influenced significantly by architectural standards and are all too often taken for granted.

Among the documentaries is Rick’s award-winning “Piazolla Con Brio,” presented to show how some styles of architecture mirror the artistry of world-famous Argentine musician Astor Piazzola’s compositions.

A continuing thread throughout the course will be the emphasis on environmental issues as we face the threat of global warming and the need for clean, renewable energy. LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) is the world standard green building rating system. It outlines a process for developing cost-saving, environmentally friendly building designs. Rick is an LEED Accredited Professional Architect.

A key aspect of LEED is Permaculture Design, in which the finished building will store or conserve more energy in its lifetime than was used to construct and maintain it.

Rick was born and raised in Buenos Aires, a cosmopolitan city that considers itself more European than Latin American. It has more libraries per person than any city in the world. He also studied in Rome. He holds a Masters of Architecture and Urban Design from UCLA and a Doctor of Architecture degree from the University of Rome.

Why I Write For The SUN  By Tom Lockhart

When OLLI asked me if I was interested in writing course synopses for inclusion in their SUN Magazine, I jumped at the chance. My reasons for seizing the opportunity were many and go back a long way.

I have never been that good at speaking, public or private. I don’t have the “gift of gab” as my sainted mother put it. I found myself much better at expressing my thoughts, ideas and experiences through the written language rather than the spoken one.

Writing Experience

I had received compliments on my writing as an undergraduate student at Penn State, even though I was an engineering major, a group not known for their writing skills or their command of the English language. I even breezed through the English proficiency test required of all students for graduation.

Through the years of my professional career as an engineer and software developer with the Department of Defense I was required to write many technical reports, users’ manuals, and so forth. They did not have to be literary gems, not the “great American novel,” just coherent and accurate. This accumulation of writing experience served me well later on with various efforts, including the SUN articles. It required me to collect my thoughts and express them clearly.

After retirement I took a short story writing class at OLLI. What started out as a curiosity ended up as a six-year effort and the sale of three short stories to magazines. Apparently, I had honed my writing skills pretty well, so OLLI asked me to try my hand at writing for the SUN.

Bringing It All Together

I have traveled all over the world and the United States. My hobbies have ranged from ballroom dancing to flying to white water rafting, and I served a tour of duty in Vietnam with the Marines. These help me relate to the OLLI classes on geography, history and travel, among others, allowing me to incorporate my personal experiences and knowledge into the course descriptions. The topic of travel especially appeals to me, having been to 52 foreign countries, six continents and 49 states. I missed Alaska and Antarctica. I’m from Pennsylvania, but having lived in Southern California for forty years, I just don’t like cold places.

Part of the OLLI writing assignments allow me to talk to the course instructors to get their perspective on the material and their motivation for teaching it at OLLI. I get an insight into their personal experiences and philosophies of life which I use to enhance the course descriptions. It’s always interesting to hear what other people think of their own lives and how that relates to their work. I also appreciate seeing how their views and philosophies differ from mine and finding ways to include them in the course synopses. These people are very well educated, remarkably knowledgeable in their respective fields and possess a real passion for the OLLI program!

Writing for OLLI adds a lot to the joy of being retired.

The President’s Corner: It’s a Hybrid/HyFlex World

Take a close look at OLLI@CSULB. We have changed in a significant way compared to our pre-Covid19 existence. We are never returning to our pre-pandemic way of life.

The most obvious change is the smaller number of students on campus, many of them wearing masks, even outdoors. Another striking change is the shrinking number of automobiles in the parking lots. These changes were all triggered by the Covid19 pandemic. The increase in parking rates is likely to sustain a smaller number of automobiles. In response to the increased parking rates and to make OLLI@CSULB more accessible to all members, we have built up our off-campus learning sites throughout Long Beach. Check out all of our sites and class offerings in our recently redesigned SUN, under the leadership of our new editor, Rojean Maciula.

The Covid19 virus has undergone several mutations in an attempt to continue this pandemic. The most recent hybrid variant, BA5, is highly contagious but less severe compared to previous variants. Given the age and medical history of many OLLI members, we have no choice but to continue our vigilance and follow university guidelines regarding this pandemic. Please follow your physician’s recommendations and stay up to date on your vaccination status.

OLLI@CSULB has responded in a positive fashion by developing our Hybrid (now termed HyFlex) system to encompass both in-person and remote learning. We have state-of-the-art equipment and programs, thanks to our newly retired executive director, Barbara White. We have cautiously introduced the HyFlex system in our recently completed summer session. Our very own Becky Low moderated a class called “Animation Classics” utilizing this system. Thank you, Becky. We are still working out the kinks in the system but are optimistic that we have a winner.

We need to replenish our OLLI enrollment this Fall. We have put together a diverse and exciting lineup of classes, including in-person, remote and HyFlex classes. The class lineup was put together by our education working group under the direction of Donna Hawk and Carolyn Estrada, and with the experienced guiding hand of Pat Wrenn.

That brings me to the final ingredient in our OLLI 2022-2023 revitalization: YOU. We need your participation, enrollment, financial support and word of mouth in order to thrive in this hybrid world. We want OLLI@CSULB to come back, and in a big way. I am looking forward to seeing you all in October 2022.

Glenn Libby, M.D.

New Class: 20th Century American Art by Tom Lockhart

The 20th Century is called the American century and was as tumultuous as a hundred years can be. It included two World Wars and stunning socioeconomic upheaval. Cultural changes were also a staple of the century, and among the most significant were those in the world of American art.

Fred Trof conducts his 20th Century American Art class in the context of those exciting decades. The class will include classic, traditional and modern art, as well as discussions of the evolution of prints, mixed media, sculpture and photography as art. It will cover the transition from urban and rural American art (still under the influence of European surrealism in the first half of the century) to the emergence and ultimate dominance of genuinely American styles. These include abstract expressionism, minimalism and pop art, whose influences continue to this day.

He will discuss a multitude of works, including artists from the early Ashcan school of gritty urban imagery to the “action painting” style of Jackson Pollock’s pouring technique; from Andy Warhol’s pop art to Ansel Adams’ dramatic contributions to photography as art form. Impressionists, regionalists, social realists, minimalists and others will be dissected and analyzed to understand their contribution to American art.

Among the featured artists will be Mary Cassatt, Roy Lichtenstein, Georgia O’Keeffe, Helen Frankenthaler, Mark Rothko, Willem & Elaine de Kooning, Robert Motherwell and Mabel Alvarez.

Fred brings to the class his nearly 50 years of experience in collecting and trading art. He also spent a great deal of time in France, particularly in and around Paris, learning the European art market.

He has a BA in Business Administration from New York University (NYU) and has many years of experience as an OLLI teacher in Nevada.

Hollywood: The African American Experience by Tom Hood

If you are a film buff, hungering for great in-depth discussions focused on the many aspects of cinema, then Allan Goldstein’s topic this session, “The African American Experience as Seen Through the Lens of Hollywood,” will certainly fill the bill. This class is centered around the evolution of African American representation in the motion picture industry from the 1950’s to current day and will show how the shifting of racial politics has acted on Hollywood.

Allan, at eleven years of age, worked for free at a local theater in Montreal. The biggest perks? He got to eat all the candy he wanted and if the opportunity arose, a chance to see the same movie three or four times, vacuuming around the seats in between shows. This early exposure and burgeoning love of cinema led to a lifelong passion and a career of writing and directing.

After earning a Bachelor of Arts from Concordia University and a Master of Arts from York University, both in Montreal, Allan worked in the entertainment industry for several years before moving to New York. He was in his late twenties when he went to work as a TV screenwriter and director. He enhanced his entertainment abilities by directing off-Broadway theater and PBS productions.

Hollywood beckoned when Allan sold a screenplay to Taylor Hackford, a noted producer, director and writer (An Officer and a Gentleman, Against All Odds and Dolores Claiborne). For the next thirty years, Allan would write and direct 50 movies, many of them sharing his deepest insights. He continues to play an active part of the film business by writing screenplays.

Allan: “Cinema is art, and the essence of art is pushing the limits of perception. I want my students to be thought-provoked, challenged and

On June 8, 25 OLLI members and friends hopped on a bus for a tour of SoFi Stadium in Inglewood. The first stop was for lunch at The Pointe, a collection of restaurants in El Segundo. Of course we all took advantage of the ice cream vouchers provided by Good Times Travel.

We then got back on the bus to SoFi Stadium the home of the Super Bowl Champions, Los Angeles Rams and the Los Angeles Chargers. There we took a guided behind the scenes tour of the magnificent new stadium. Opened in 2020 and built at a cost of nearly $5 billion, it is an architectural and technological marvel. We were able to experience what it was like to be a VIP, visiting a luxury suite. We were also able to see the stadium from a player’s perspective by going into the luxurious locker room and walking down the tunnel and onto the field. On the field we were given the opportunity to throw passes, kick a field goal or just stroll around the field imagining 70,000 fans cheering us on.

Like any tour, we ended in the gift shop where we were given the opportunity to purchase stadium-exclusive merchandise and gear. The hour long drive back to Long Beach went by quickly as John, our Good Times Travel trip leader, shared the story of Inglewood’s incredible renaissance and their ambitious plans for the future.

New: Here Comes iOS 16

One of the signs of Fall in the Apple computer world is the iOS operating system update in September. That leads to an OLLI class which demonstrates the latest features you’ll see on your iPhones once you update them. A few iOS 16 features include the ability to personalize your phone’s lock screen with photos, different fonts and even how to add widgets. A new feature in the Health app lets you create schedules and reminders so you won’t miss taking any medications, vitamins or supplements. And if you’ve ever sent a text message where a typo or autocorrect has changed the meaning of a sentence, iOS 16 will let you edit text messages right after you send them. There are many more features which the class will explore. I will be teaching this class.

New: The Apple Ecosystem And Its Services

If you have one or more Apple devices, odds are that you have used at least one of the company’s services and not realized it, especially if you are using a free one. If you subscribed to AppleCare when you first bought your Apple device, that’s an example of a service you have to pay for. Chris Wisniewski will tell you how the services - both the free and paid kind - work and how to manage them. You’ll also learn about some new privacy-related services such as iCloud+, Private Relay and Hide My Email.

In addition, class members will discover the security benefits of Passkeys, available on Macs, iPhones, iPads, Apple TVs, and Apple Watches. They will learn how this alternative to passwords works when they log onto websites and some apps using their fingerprints or Face ID.

News Flash: NO PASSWORDS!

For many of us, dealing with passwords when we go online is a necessary evil. We have to use them for our own safety, but they are annoying to manage no matter how you look at it. But here is some good news about them courtesy of Chris Wisniewski, one of our technology instructors.

“This is one of the most exciting developments in personal computing ever: the ability to log into your website accounts securely and easily — without needing to enter (or remember) passwords! This long sought-after capability has finally become a reality thanks to the hard work and cooperation from all major web browser makers and companies such as Apple, Microsoft and Google, which together developed an industry-wide standard. Passkeys is the Apple version that can be used with Apple devices this fall.”

There will be some coverage of Passkeys in my iOS 16 class and a more detailed discussion in Chris’s new Apple Ecosystems class.

New: Telling Your Pandemic Story

You’ll be guided through the process of collecting photos (either ones you already have, or those you find online), putting them in an easy-to-use format, then describing them to reflect your thoughts and experiences while your movements were restricted at the height of the COVID-19 pandemic. The pictures could show how your life was changed while you were confined to your home; how it felt to finally be out in public; some new skills you learned or experiences you had. The result will be a memoir you can pass on to friends and family members, as well as something you can keep to remind you of that difficult time. New-to-OLLI Instructor Jessica Kyle will teach the class.

HyFlex: Innovation at OLLI

First there were in-person classes. Then there was COVID. So we stayed home and Zoomed. Now OLLI has added HyFlex, a system that combines in person and Zoom in one class.

HyFlex = hybrid + flexible
1. HyFlex classes give you the flexibility to participate in person or on Zoom for any HyFlex class you register for. If you are ill, traveling, or challenged to find accessible campus parking, classes will still be available.
2. HyFlex offers improved accessibility for individuals experiencing barriers that prevent in-person class attendance.
3. HyFlex helps increase class registration limits, so more students are able to sign up for our most popular classes.

The Classroom

HyFlex classes are based in OLLI’s classroom #101. This classroom has been newly equipped with high tech microphones, cameras, projectors, two screens, and a control center podium. This new equipment allows interaction between instructor, in-person students, and Zoom students. Everyone can see and hear everyone else.

Next Steps

Our first HyFlex format class -- Becky Low’s Animation class -- was offered this summer. This “test run” helped us learn to use the new equipment and identify what classes are best suited for HyFlex. We are on a learning curve and will be providing both instructors and members with tools to become effective participants.

An Opportunity For Members

The Hyflex format requires Classroom Assistants and Zoom Hosts to assure a satisfying experience. If you have technical skills, curiosity, and a willingness to learn, this is your opportunity to support our instructors in the classroom.

Contact Becky at 562-985-8237 for more information.

Questions & Answers

Is HyFlex the same as hybrid?
Sort of. Hybrid is a general term for combining two different elements. (Like hybrid cars with both gas and electric engines.) HyFlex is a combination of hybrid + flexible and describes an instructional system that delivers classroom and Zoom content at the same time.

Is HyFlex replacing in-person and Zoom classes?
No. We are offering three different class formats:
1. In Person: Everyone attends in person at one location.
2. Zoom: Everyone attends online using Zoom.
3. HyFlex: Everyone has the choice to attend in person or on Zoom for any HyFlex class. For example: attend the first class meeting in person, but stay home to attend the second class on Zoom. It’s your choice.

How do I sign up for a HyFlex class?
Check the class listings on page 15 and 16 for the word HyFlex in the next to last column, then sign up as usual. In a HyFlex class your feedback and patience are important for our success.

I’m confused. How can I learn more?

A Little History

We began talking about “distance learning” with Carl Curtis several years ago as a way to increase participation in popular classes with limited classroom space. With the onset of COVID-19 the Osher National Resource Center began offering information about HyFlex equipment.

The Team Does Research

The committee worked tirelessly for more than a year to find the equipment that best suited our needs.

- Barbara White: Chair and Liason with CHHS IT
- Becky Low: Office Administrator
- Pon Yi, Hieu Vu: CHHS IT representatives

Member Support

The HyFlex system was researched and recommended. But was it worth a $55,000 investment, and did OLLI members want it? The project was discussed at the 2021 member meeting and was met with a resounding “yes and we will be willing to make a donation for it”.

Funding the Project

Fundraising resulted in 185 members donating a total of $55,200 for the project. We thank these additional generous individuals: Carl Curtis, David DeWenter, Len Jacobson, Livia Kim (in memory of Steve Maleski), Gael and Glenn Libby, Vicki O’Toole, and Barbara White.
Dr. Barbara White joined OLLI at CSULB as our Executive Director in early 2009. She was our first Executive Director and we couldn’t have wished for one an Executive Director with a more apt background of education and experience than Dr. White. With a master’s degree in Nursing, a Doctorate in Public Health and many years’ experience and responsibility at CSULB in nursing, gerontology, and successful aging she was tailor-made for OLLI. (Despite all this and her standing in the world of academia, over the years Dr. Barbara White gradually became Dr. Barb and eventually just plain Barb.)

When Barb joined OLLI, we had satellite sites at Leisure World and Pine Avenue in downtown Long Beach. Although we withdrew from Leisure World in 2018, we have continued to add sites beyond our campus classrooms – the Alpert Jewish Community Center, Long Beach Bridge Center, American Gold Star Manor, St Isidore Historic Plaza, and Long Beach Parks, Recreation and Marine locations. And OLLI steadily grew from a little over 1,000 members in 2008-09 to over 2,000 in 2018-19.

There have been many accomplishments and milestones during Barb’s tenure as Executive Director.

- Some routine - two strategic plan cycles, by law revisions, staffing changes, new classroom and lobby furniture, installation of the OLLI patio, collaboration with other campus entities, etc.
- Some major – qualification for a second Osher Endowment in 2012, celebration of our 20th anniversary in 2016 with a Founders Day, implementation of online registration in 2017, establishment of the OLLI Donor Wall, a market downturn in 2018 affecting our endowment distributions, a change in tuition fees in Fall 2019 and our 25th Anniversary Celebration in 2022.
- And one near catastrophic – the COVID 19 Pandemic!

When the pandemic shutdown took place in March 2020, most of us stood around wringing our hands as we watched enrollment and membership plummet. Barb grabbed us by the scruff of the neck and pulled us into the world of online classes. Many volunteers jumped in to help but she learned Zoom, helped set up class links, helped train instructors and members, and continues to this day to host classes.

Probably most important, she started sending out a regular weekly email to current and former members. The messages were informative, timely and often humorous, including offerings from many OLLI members. And, best of all, they kept us connected to our community during the worst of the pandemic.

And when it became clear we needed to not only upgrade our AV capabilities we also needed to go to include Hyflex, there was a chorus of objections – it’s too hard, it’s too expensive, how do we know our members want hybrid, etc. Barb basically told us “Never mind - it’s the future of OLLI.”

It’s been a wild ride over the past twelve years, however, with Barb sharing the helm, we have thrived and survived. Although we are now saying Farewell to Dr. Barbara White, OLLI Executive Director, hopefully before not too long we will be saying Welcome to Barb White, OLLI Volunteer!
Meet OLLI’s Education Working Group

The Education Working Group (EWG) is one of several working groups whose volunteers support the mission of OLLI: to provide quality educational opportunities for older adults by offering a broad spectrum of programs.

The EWG members brainstorm needs and interests for new classes. They then seek out instructors who might be willing and able to offer those classes. Before the pandemic, all classes were held on campus or at one of our off-campus sites. However, during the pandemic we were forced to cancel all in-person classes and hold all classes online on Zoom. This required finding instructors who were willing and able to teach using the Zoom format. Through the collaboration of the Education Working Group and the Technology Working Group and the office, instructors and OLLI members were trained in the use of Zoom. Because of Zoom, we have been graced with the presence of many new instructors from various OLLI campuses throughout the United States. We are especially grateful for their talents, generosity and diversity of topics. As we have gradually been able to return to in-person classes, we have also expanded our schedule of classes on Zoom. Thanks to generous donations from OLLI members, OLLI is now able to offer HyFlex classes (see page 7) that can be attended in person or on Zoom. Our current schedule now offers classes in three different formats: in-person, Zoom, or HyFlex.

Each session the EWG members consider proposed classes, looking for general appeal, background of the instructor and diversity. The EWG scheduler orients the new and veteran instructors to the format for presenting classes at OLLI - discussing session dates, choice of days/times/sites/ and methods of presenting, whether in-person/Zoom/HyFlex. In return, the instructors share availability and preferences to the above. The scheduler continues a connection with the instructors throughout the scheduling period.

The EWG members also make sure instructors are aware that teaching a class is a volunteer activity - instructors are not paid. EWG members provide support to instructors, whether on campus at CSULB or at one of our various off-campus sites. Prior to the beginning of each session, working group members phone instructors to assist with any questions or concerns they may have and thank them for donating their time and talent.

The EWG members are always alert for community people who can present interesting and stimulating one-day “Special Event” presentations to be included each session. These presentations are offered free of charge to OLLI members as well as the general public.

For the fall 2022 session the EWG has scheduled 78 classes covering a wide variety of topics. Twenty-eight of our 78 classes feature a new topic, or a new instructor. Fifty classes are led by a veteran instructor. Of all classes, 28 will be via Zoom, 46 will be in-person, and six will be HyFlex. In addition, there are four special events which are open to OLLI members and the public.

Currently OLLI in-person classes are being held at several sites around Long Beach (see page 31.) EWG members are also responsible for organizing an orientation for “Instructors New to OLLI” twice yearly wherein University and OLLI expectations are discussed. Members offer some critical educational suggestions to make the teaching experience a positive and pleasant one. Many OLLI instructors have never taught in a classroom BUT they are very willing and able to “Teach Their Passion” and provide an interesting learning environment, and they do appreciate a few positive suggestions to help the class run smoothly. Each is given a working Handbook for New Instructors that is compiled by the EWG members.

The EWG always welcomes more members who are committed to the OLLI mission and can donate a few hours a month to OLLI. Please contact a member of the group or Becky Low, in the office, if you are interested in being a part of our EWG mission.
Florence Lee Hawkins St. Peter was born on December 28, 1936. She was a graduate of East Cleveland High School and went on to Study the Arts at Cleveland’s acclaimed Karamu House. She was a part of Hollywood’s Black Film and Television explosion of the late 1960’s and early 70’s.

Staying true to her first love, she began singing in local night clubs and took roles in touring theater productions while working as an Executive Secretary at TRW. She continued to model and do independent Films. Music Videos and PSAs. She even did a sketch on the Keenan Ivory Wayans Show and had her own Radio Show, "Florence's Place" featuring her favorite Jozz and Blues artists.

Florence gave back to her community as much as she received. She volunteered at the Carpenter Performing Arts Center and at St. Mary's Medical Center in Long Beach. She was most fulfilled as a licensed Tai Chi Chih instructor. She taught in the LB Senior community and was a favorite teacher at OLLI at CSULB. She will be missed. Florence took her final curtain call May 19th, 2022 at the age of 85.

Terry Geiling  (1938 – 2022)

OLLI, CSULB, American Gold Star Manor, the Veterans’ Administration and his family mourn the unexpected death of Terry Geiling, a member of OLLI and a pillar in the Long Beach community. Mayor Robert Garcia lauded him saying “He leaves an enormous and incredible legacy.” Don Knabe, former LA County Supervisor said “Terry improved the lives of so many people . . .” and the president of the Long Beach Rotary club referred to him as “…an amazing human being who couldn’t say no when helping other people.”

We at OLLI met Terry when he reached out to us in his role as CEO of American Gold Star Manor. He was the catalyst for OLLI offering classes at the Manor and later delighted in taking OLLI classes. He was an advocate for older adults and for veterans and their families. Terry served 8 years in the Navy on active duty on submarines and continued in the Naval Reserve.

Most recently, his dedication to military families prompted him to accept the position of the President of Fisher House Southern California, which “provides veteran families with housing near their loved one while they are hospitalized for an illness, at no cost to them.” Linda Rahn, executive director of the organization said Terry “had an endearing smile, a gentle style, loads of energy, and great ideas.” Those of us who had the pleasure of knowing him saw a role model for his vision, dedication, and leadership in service to others, especially older adults and veterans – and a vision of him behind the wheel of his top-down RED convertible. Rest in peace.

Craig Myers

Born October 11, 1942, Craig Myers grew up in Trenton, N.J. He left as soon as he could. A degree in history from Rutgers didn’t help his plans, so he joined the Peace Corps in the mid-sixties, and spent the next two years of his life in Malawi, working on a health project.

Following that inspiration, he returned to Los Angeles to get a Master’s in Public Health. Later, he was hired by the Dooley Foundation to run his hospitals in Laos for two years, then he returned to California. Craig spent the next 50 years as a hospital administrator. He spoke a form of Swahili, Lao, French, some Vietnamese, and east coast English. He was the kindest man you would ever meet, and an extraordinary husband, and friend.

VOLUNTEER AT OLLI
Volunteering creates a more vibrant learning community and connects you to other OLLI members. It’s a great way to make new friends and is personally satisfying and rewarding.

Currently we have more than 150 OLLI member volunteers. They are the creative source for all of our courses, special events, social activities, publications and classroom services.

OLLI committee chairs and Board members are always on the lookout for volunteers. These are a few of positions currently open for volunteers:

- Classroom Assistants and Zoom Hosts - If you have technical skills, curiosity, and a willingness to learn, this is your opportunity to support our instructors in the classroom.

- Instructors and facilitators - Do you love to help others learn? Please share your interests and expertise in areas such as: history, literature, travel, science, math, or technology. All topics are welcome.

Contact the OLLI office at (562) 985-8237 to volunteer.

  Mondays, Oct. 3 – 31 (5 weeks) 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. Zoom
  The course is based upon the work of Dr. James Birren, a professor and pioneer in the field of Aging Studies. It is a semi-structured process of recalling, writing, and sharing one’s life story based on universal themes provided each week. You will be provided with writing tips, creative exercises and tools for writing your own life story. The first session is a 60-minute orientation about the structure, expectations, and student commitments to the class. The next 4 sessions are approximately 2 hours long, depending on the class size. Class participants will return each week with a two-page story based on the theme provided. Each group member will share his/her story and receive positive feedback with assured confidentiality. No need to be a talented writer, just tell your own story. Class limit: 10

MONDAY CLASSES

STAND TALL - STAND STRONG
  Mondays, Oct. 3 - Nov. 14 & Wednesdays, Oct. 5 - Nov. 16
  8:30 - 9:50 a.m. Zoom
  This active Zoom class meets Mon. and Wed.; choose to attend once or twice weekly. It integrates stretching, coordination, stability, and strengthening exercises.
  You will need a space of about 6 ft. in diameter, a stable chair, and a resistance band. Water is essential. An elastic tube, covered in cloth, with soft handles is recommended. These are available online at Amazon or FitCord, or BigFive, Target, TJ Maxx. Choose a resistance level: Moderate resistance for regular exercise. If you have shoulder conditions, consider Light resistance. If you are tall, get a longer length cord. Cloth covered tubes are not inexpensive, but they protect the skin and should the tube break, it will not snap back at you.

ART IN AMERICA: THE 20TH CENTURY

Mondays, Oct. 3 – Nov. 14
12:00 – 1:30 p.m.
CSULB, HS&D, room 101

Art was a tumultuous century in America – the Spanish-American War, two world wars, the Korean conflict and the ushering in of the nuclear age. There was the Great Depression, talking films and the Titanic. The first half of the century saw burgeoning art movements, yet our young country still could not escape the influence of the European artists and movements, led by Pablo Picasso. Then, as WWII ended, the abstract expressionists burst upon the scene, seemingly in a revolt against the European surrealists. The 60’s saw the advent of Pop Art and minimalism, dynamic departures from abstract expressionism. We will survey 20th century American art in pictures, video, film, and discourse to see how geopolitical conditions, technology and of course an incredibly innovative group of artists changed the landscape of painting forever. Class limit: 60

MOVIE MATINEE

Thursdays, Oct. 6 – Nov. 17
2:00 – 5:00 p.m.
CSULB, HS&D, room 101

We are going to time travel from 1950 to the present day as we examine the African American experience as presented through the lens of Hollywood. The inclusion of African Americans in major motion picture roles often stirred controversy and is limited, dating back decades due to racist ideas and the fact that the motion picture industry is dominated by white executives, directors, and other decision makers. In the 1950’s African Americans were cast as subservient maids and butlers such as in, “Imitation Of Life” in which the stellar acting of Louise Beavers was never properly recognized. During the ‘60s, as people everywhere joined the fight for civil rights, Hollywood mostly stayed away but films such as, “In The Heat of the Night”, sent shock waves through popular culture when Det. Tibbs, an African American of great humanity, depth and righteous indignation, slapped plantation owner Endicott in the face. In 1989, a film about racial injustice again blasted into popular culture with Spike Lee’s, “Do the Right Thing”, which for the first time reflected a nuanced and loving portrait of a Black community. Join us as we watch groundbreaking films that reflect the journey Hollywood has traversed over the past eighty years. Class limit: 35

SONGS FROM THE GREAT AMERICAN SONGBOOK AND BEYOND!

The Intersection Between Entertainment, Patriotism, Politics and Social Justice

Thursdays, Oct. 6 – 27 (4 wks)
3:00 – 4:30 p.m.
Zoom

The Great American Songbook centered in New York City’s Tin Pan Alley produced iconic standards for Broadway, film, popular music and jazz. Composers such as Irving Berlin, Leonard Bernstein & Stephen Sondheim wrote about themes on domestic violence, race, civil rights, ethnicity, and lofty ideals. The sixties brought us the Folk Rock era with social justice themes and songs from Bob Dylan, Peter, Paul & Mary, and others.

This class will explore how these beloved songs addressed the issues of their day, and still speak to us today. We will unpack backstories of how these songs came to be, hear recordings, and watch videos of singers from Broadway, film, pop, rock, and jazz who threaded the needle between entertainment, patriotism, politics, and social justice. Class limit: none
Presenter: Mike Agron – Music Aficionado: He has delivered many popular seminars including This is Sinatra, Celebrating Perfect Vocal Harmony Groups, Celebrating Composers and his most recent seminar, Celebrating the Great Vocal Jazz, and Pop Albums - Part I.

THE CLASSIC ERA OF ROCK & ROLL MUSIC

Wednesday, October 12
3:00 - 4:30 p.m. Zoom

The Classic Era of rock & roll music was a time of incredible creativity in the arts and in artful ways of living. It was a tumultuous time, too, when struggles over civil rights, the Vietnam War, political assassinations, and gender equity sometimes made it seem the world was coming apart. The music helped us get through it. It gave us a voice, an anthem, a gathering place where we shared our dreams and our fears. This is a memoir of those times by a writer with press credentials and a backstage pass at a fascinating period of history, important not only for what it was but also for what it teaches us about where we are now.

Presenter: James Pagliasotti
