

DROPS AND WITHDRAWALS AT CSULB VIA MYCSULB

FALL 2022

Using Academics guides students through self-service schedule adjustments options available in MyCSULB during the first two weeks of class. Classes dropped during this time will not appear on students' permanent records.

Note: Students who do not attend class or stop attending class are responsible to initiate a drop or withdrawal by the deadline. Do not assume the university or the instructor will remove you from a class.

After the first two weeks of class, students may initiate withdrawals from class through MyCSULB. Instructions are located under the Request to Withdraw tab at Using Academics.

Important: Students should consider the consequences of a withdrawal from class and consult their academic advisor. Withdrawals can impact progress towards degree, future course enrollment, and financial aid eligibility.

Withdrawals are subject to CSULB's Undergraduate Withdrawal Limit (18 units over the course of their entire CSULB undergraduate career) and are permissible only for a serious and compelling reason.

The conditions under which students may drop/withdraw from classes are stated in University Policy Statement 12-03. The most current information on CSULB drops and withdrawals is available at Using Academics.
