Bachelor of Arts in Dance
Option in Dance Science (code DANCBA02) (120 units)

This new option was recommended by the Academic Senate on February 27, 2003 and concurred by the President on May 12, 2003.)

The B.A. in Dance, Option in Dance Science offers the dance major a course of study combining dance with specific science courses for students interested in teaching, careers in dance, or careers in dance fitness. This degree also gives preparation for those who seek graduate education to the areas of dance science or related dance studies.

Admission into the program is the same for the general B.A. in Dance, which requires passing an entrance audition for placement in the major sequence of courses and meeting all University entrance requirements.
