

CATALYST FOR CHANGE SCHOLARSHIP

DEADLINE: MARCH 12 by 11:59 p.m.

The California State University, Long Beach Catalyst for Change Scholarship was created in memory of George Floyd, Breonna Taylor, Ahumaud Arbery, Tony McDade, Ron Settles, and countless other Black men & women that have suffered or died as a result of police brutality. The scholarship was designed to support CSULB students who serve as catalysts for change through racial and social justice.

CRITERIA:

- Cal State Long Beach enrolled student;
- Minimum 2.0 Cumulative GPA;
- Financial need may be considered;
- Must show evidence of social justice work supporting the Black community;
- Must have active membership within the past two years with the CSULB Black Student Union, CSULB Recognized Black Organizations and/or National Pan-Hellenic Council

Find out more @ <https://bit.ly/cfcs2023>