  - A. Introduction and New Member(s) new members introduced and all members introduced themselves to the committee members, two new members, Raul Pacheco and Christian Bracho, are welcomed! S. Miller says they will be transitioning off the committee at the end of the semester and solicits members to consider being chair next year. Hyowon Ban also to cycle off at the end of the year. Shae, Hyowon and Rachel will be meeting with the Provost Strategic Communication team to map out how the various LGBTQ websites be accessible to campus constituents. Ash is currently working on Safe Zone and this will be added to the website when completed also. S Miller explains the shared governance structure at CSULB to the committee. Open announcements from members include events on campus. Queer prom will be April 24, 6-9 pm, will include a DJ, marketing to follow soon.
  - B. DEIA Collaborative Presentation: Trace Camacho and Evelyn Klaus-TC and EK present on DEIA efforts on campus, this is different from other things on campus, the goal is to move from focusing on equality and equity to add justice. There are representatives from all divisions on campus. DEIA should be infused in all work on campus. there is not a comprehensive campus plan, which is a challenge. A long-term vision and plan for the campus are being examined. Opportunities are presented. A proposed DEIA collaborative structure is shown. Membership from divisions presented. TC reports that the campus application will be updating the gender question to include additional choices.
- V. Ongoing Business:
  - A. LGBTQIA+ CCC Charge Revisions (recently updated, and wait on CCC charge approval)
  - B. Membership
