

BLENDING TRACK: CURRENT CSULB STUDENTS

GRADUATE PROGRAM IN APPLIED NUTRITION AND DIETETICS (GP)

AT CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LONG BEACH (CSULB)

Enrolled in the B.S. in Nutrition & Food Science at CSULB

Be in good academic standing, "C" or better in all coursework

Ready for a spring graduation

B.S. Year 3

Semester 1

Fall

Semester 2

Spring

B.S. Year 4

Semester 3

Fall

Semester 4

B.S.

"Blended" semester allows current B.S. students to start GP and gain 12 units toward both programs

GP Year 1

Spring

Summer

Fall

GP Year 2

Spring

Summer

M.S.

+

RDN Exam Eligible

Summer/Fall Before Final Year

Acceptance notification
by October 31

Start GP in January

GP Application
due
September 1

Interviews in October

Applicants who are not admitted will simply complete electives and NUTR 461 during the final semester of their B.S.. They are still welcome to reapply to the GP via the Traditional track in the future.