ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

California State University, Fullerton:

Chair, Department Child and Adolescent Studies (CAS)

7/2014-6/2021; 7/2022-10/2023; 7/2024-Present

Provide academic and administrative leadership for a large department of 20 tenure-line faculty, 30+ lecturers, and over 1,800 majors and minors. Manage departmental budget and staffing including successfully hiring and onboarding 8 tenure-line faculty, approximately 20 lecturers, and 5 staff members. Design student-centered course schedules to align with faculty expertise and promote timely graduation. Established clear mentoring and evaluation processes for all faculty and staff, including streamlined evaluation guidelines for faculty and ongoing professional development in cultural competence, anti-racist pedagogy, and advocacy. Lead departmental program assessment and curriculum revision efforts, including updates to all concentrations and key courses. Co-created a first-year experience program for CAS majors. Oversaw development and state approval of an Elementary Subject Matter waiver pathway and an Integrated Teacher Preparation program for Special Education. Collaborate closely with the advising team to implement data-informed strategies that improve graduation rates and reduced equity gaps. Expanded global learning opportunities by supporting faculty-led implementation of 15+ short-term study abroad programs.

Interim Dean, College of Health and Human Development (CHHD)

10/2023-6/2024

Provided strategic and operational leadership for a large college comprising eight academic units, 120 tenure-line faculty, 260+ lecturers, 40 staff, and over 6,500 undergraduate and graduate students. Collaborated with associate deans and the academic resource manager on faculty and staff recruitment, mentoring, and evaluation; strategic programming and community outreach; curricular innovation and revision; program assessment and accreditation; and student success initiatives. Oversaw facilities coordination and managed a $20.5 million budget. Partnered with the director of development to strengthen external funding and community engagement. Represented CHHD in the development of CSUF's Strategic Plan, Fullerton Forward.

Interim Associate Dean for Planning, Personnel, and Resources, College of Health and Human Development (CHHD)

7/2021-6/2022

Provided leadership on personnel, planning, and resource management for a large college of eight academic units, in partnership with the dean. Oversaw staff supervision and evaluation in collaboration with department chairs and school directors. Led successful searches for seven staff positions and contributed to two leadership searches. Guided the process and implementation of 11 tenure-track faculty searches across two academic years and conducted 50+ lecturer evaluations. Served as the dean's liaison for faculty and staff accommodations and leaves. Implemented college-wide initiatives including telecommute and 9/80 summer scheduling pilots. Onboarded new department chairs and facilitated chair elections. Authored a progress report for the college strategic plan. Launched a college-wide tutoring program with coordinated faculty and student support. Co-chaired the College Climate and Culture of Inclusion (CCI) Task Force and led a Community of Practice to pilot the Ascend classroom climate survey, promoting inclusive pedagogy and reducing equity gaps. Co-developed an onboarding and mentorship program for new tenure-track faculty.

COMMUNITY RESEARCH AND INTERVENTION EXPERIENCE

2016-Present Co-Director; Resilient Families Program, California State University Fullerton. Co-direct a project to implement and evaluate a culturally sensitive, 8-week program that promotes resilience and stress-reduction by building protective factors in children and their parents. We have partnered with community-based organizations and schools, including Orange County Head Start, Homeless Intervention Services (HIS) OC, Orange County Family Justice Center, and the Fullerton School District, to deliver the program over 35 times.

2003-2006 Assistant Scientist; Research Director, Linda Ray Center for Vulnerable Children and Families: Department of Psychology, University of Miami. Directed several intervention research projects, including an early intervention program for children who were prenatally exposed to cocaine, a parenting project for at-risk parents of infants and toddlers, and an infant mental health program. Responsibilities included study design, supervision of data collection, data analysis, manuscript preparation, and conference presentations.

2001-2002 Research Associate, Health Science Department, California State University, San Bernardino
Worked on several program evaluations, including an evaluation of a comprehensive, early intervention program for families with young children. Responsibilities included statistical analysis, data presentation, designing evaluations plans, and supervising several undergraduate research assistants.

- 1998 Research and Evaluation Assistant, Five Acres: The boys' and girls' society of Los Angeles.
Assisted with program evaluation, continuing quality assurance, and research within several programs run by the agency, including a residential treatment facility for socially and emotionally disturbed children, a foster care program, and a family resource center.
