Deadline for Application: March 3, 2025 for Spring season April 4th - May 30th

Description:

PICK6 Flag Football SoCal is the fastest growing and volunteer based educational non-profit in the area. We teach boys and girls (3 yrs old - 14 yrs old & All-Girls 10 yrs old - High School) in San Pedro and surroundings areas in Southern California about careers other than sports players, also to develop their character through enforcing ethical sportsmanship, and most importantly, to be physically active for at least 60 minutes each day while choosing healthy food options – all through the flag football experience.

The winning anchor/reporter candidate will be a strong writer, sharp wit and the ability to work well with others, have a clear understanding of how to dig for a story, research it, write it with an edge, making the story ideas - impactful and memorable. It is important to have sports knowledge and kept abreast of current events, especially in local, state, and national sports. Cameraman – record the anchor/reporter when he/she is interviewing players, coaches, spectators, capture excitement surrounding the game and players action shots.

Internship Training

- Gain knowledge of youth flag football rules and the players
- How to improve fan experience, highlight player performance, and understanding the sports industry
- How to use social media during games to draw more attention and excitement to our league
- Practice interviewing and understanding which angles are best to present on camera

Intern Roles/Responsibilities

- Interview players/coaches/spectaculars before and after games
- Anchor/report/film youth games (length 50 mins.)
- Ability to maintain an active social media presence to build your brand and solicit original story ideas
- Game days – Friday evenings (Spring - San Pedro) 4pm - 7pm
