

LONG BEACH COMMUNITY INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

EXPLORE CAREER OPTIONS WHILE MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN YOUR COMMUNITY!

As a CSULB undergraduate student, you can be part of a paid internship program. If selected, you will be placed with local nonprofit organizations to gain real-world skills and build professional networks that can lead to successful and meaningful careers.

STUDENTS WILL:

- ✓ Commit to a one-semester internship and complete at least 90 hours of meaningful work (about 6-8 hours a week) while honing skills, exploring career opportunities and networking
- ✓ Enroll in a 3-unit internship course during the semester your internship takes place.
- ✓ Attend professional development trainings and workshops.

- ✓ Participate in campus and community events.
- ✓ Receive a $2,000 participation award.
