

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

3RD ANNUAL STUDENT RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

ABSTRACT
DEADLINE:
MARCH 6, 2026

HEALTH LITERACY IN ACTION: EVIDENCE, ENGAGEMENT, AND EQUITY

As part of the 5th Annual CSULB Week of Research, Scholarly, and Creative Activity (RSCA), the Center for Latino Community Health, Evaluation, and Leadership Training is hosting a Student Research Symposium on Friday, April 24, 2026 from 11am - 2pm.

We invite undergraduate and graduate students working with CHHS faculty to submit an abstract to present their research. This year's theme is Health Literacy in Action: Evidence, Engagement, and Equity. We encourage submissions focused on the social determinants of health and topics related to health literacy and health communication strategies. Other health topics are welcome. Top scoring students will be entered into the research poster competition.

See Abstract Guidelines for guidance and deadlines.

College of Health
& Human Services

LONG BEACH STATE UNIVERSITY
CENTER FOR LATINO
COMMUNITY HEALTH
EVALUATION & LEADERSHIP TRAINING

ABSTRACT GUIDELINES

3RD ANNUAL STUDENT RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

ABSTRACT GUIDELINES:

- Abstracts should include the following section headers and pertinent information: Background, Purpose, Methods, Results, Conclusion.
- Abstracts should be no more than 300 words in length.
- Abstracts should be reviewed and approved by all co-authors.
- Abstracts are encouraged to address the following topics: social determinants of health, health literacy, or health communication.

REVIEW PROCESS:

- Each abstract will be blind reviewed by at least two CSULB faculty.
- Abstracts submitted and accepted will be notified by March 23, 2026.

PRESENTATION GUIDELINES:

- Poster presentations will be done in-person on April 24, 2026
- Posters will be presented between 12pm-1:30pm; location TBD

ABSTRACT DEADLINE: MARCH 6, 2026 (11:59PM)

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION PORTAL

More information:
natalia.gatdula@csulb.edu

LONG BEACH STATE UNIVERSITY
CENTER FOR LATINO
COMMUNITY HEALTH
EVALUATION & LEADERSHIP TRAINING

College of Health
& Human Services