DANCE TO WORLD MUSIC ... FOR FUN AND FITNESS*Wednesdays, April 8 - May 20*1:00 - 3:00 p.m. Womens Club of Bellflower 9402 Oak St.

Are you curious about.... How did traditional dances of Bulgaria get preserved during 400 years of Ottoman occupation? What's the difference between social and ritual dances? In what formation were dances done in ancient Greece? Why can dances in which dancers strike sticks together be found in diverse regions of the world? After a brief warm up (often improvisational movement) we devote a few minutes to exercises to maintain posture, balance and strength then learn dance step patterns for traditional dances from multiple cultural traditions. We also learn a bit about the history and communities that generated the dances. Čočeks, Horas, waltzes, Sârbas, Pravos, Kolos keep our hearts, knees and feet gaily moving to a variety of rhythms. Dance incorporates social, cardio, cognitive and expressive activity—an ideal combination to maintain lifelong health. Comfortable shoes that allow for lateral movement and turning on a responsive wooden floor are recommended.. Your OLLI membership is required The class is FREE. Class limit: 50

Leader: Diane Baker is a life-long learner, dedicated dancer, and retired physical educator who enjoys world travel and making new friends.

HOLOCAUST SURVIVOR PORTRAIT GALLERY TOUR*Friday, May 8 (1 day) 10:00 a.m.– 12:30 p.m.*Cypress College, 9200 Valley View Ave., Cypress, CA 90630

From the mid-1930s until the end of the WWII, the Nazi regime carried out a campaign of sustained antisemitic persecution that developed into a coordinated program of mass murder. Millions of Jewish people were killed; many different communities were shattered – and not just people were destroyed but entire ways of life. The Holocaust will soon pass out of living memory, leaving us without the first-hand testimony of eyewitnesses and survivors. The Cypress College Holocaust Survivor's Portrait Gallery will help to preserve their stories and to ensure the world never forgets what they experienced. The portraits go beyond likenesses and capture the essence of the survivor's character and their resilience in the face of unspeakable horror and loss. The Holocaust matters because as it was happening, much of the world stood by and watched—not just Germans, not just Europeans—the world. Today, we use the Holocaust to remember that we, as world citizens, can and must do better.

Join a docent narrated tour of the Gallery, meet the photographer, see the portraits which will spark empathy and admiration as you hear their stories. The event concludes with a group discussion. Class limit: 30
Register online. Open to OLLI members.
